WOA HALL OF FAME

The Washington Officials Association (WOA) is pleased to sponsor the Washington Officials Association Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame provides special recognition to individuals who have contributed to the youth of Washington through sports officiating. Induction into the WOA Hall of Fame will occur each year at the annual WOA Conference. (Local associations/boards may hold an induction ceremony for selected officials.)

Instructions

1. Complete all requested information in typewritten form and submit to the WIAA office.
2. Submit a current 8x10 photograph of the nominee. The WOA office shall retain the nomination form and photograph.

Criteria

1. To be eligible for selection into the WOA Hall of Fame a nominee must be either a registered official with the WOA for a minimum of 30 years, 60 years of age or older, or is being nominated for extenuating circumstances such as transferring to another state or an untimely death.
2. A nominee must have displayed high moral character, outstanding citizenship, and the ideals embodied in the WOA Code of Ethics.
3. Consideration will be given to nominees who have:
 - a. Served in more than one sports area throughout their career.
 - b. Received National Federation Officials' Association awards and any other WOA/WIAA recognitions.
 - c. Served as an officer of a local, state, or national sports officials' association/board.
 - d. Officiated various levels of competition, i.e., district and state tournament officiating will be considered, in addition to other levels of officiating (college, professional).
